

Challenges

Challenges serve as a way for students to move higher in the section. Rules for Challenges are as follows:

-Student that is initiating the challenge must inform the Director and the person being challenged at least 1 week prior to the date of the challenge.

-There must be more than 3 weeks until the next concert event.

-Music will be decided by the all parties involved:

-The Director will pick scale to be performed (Major and Minor)

-The Challenger will pick one piece

-The Challenged will pick one piece

-The part of the music to be performed will be decided by the director on the day of the challenge. Students will not have prior knowledge of the part of the piece to be performed.

-Students will be graded on technique, melodic and rhythmic accuracy, and intonation.

-All decisions on the challenge are final and not up for appeal. If you wish you may re-challenge the same person at least 2 weeks after the initial challenge.
